

PRIVACY NOTICE (CITIZEN YOUNG PEOPLE)

Here at Citizen Housing Group Ltd (Citizen), we take your privacy seriously. Below, we detail what information we collect, why we collect it, who we share it with and how we safeguard it. We will only use your personal information to administer your tenancy; however, we will share it with appropriate third parties.

For some information, we do not need to seek your consent to hold or process it as it is part of our performance of a contract. We obtain personal identifiable information in order to conduct our normal business operations as a Social Housing Provider. We provide more than just a home and therefore if you agree, we will ask you to give us information where we can provide money/debt advice and optional help in seeking employment.

Citizen will never sell your information to third parties. For the purpose of this privacy notice we are the “controller” of your personal identifiable information as we determine the purposes and content of this information and the methods of processing. As a Registered Social Housing Provider, we are regulated by the Regulator of Social Housing (RSH).

Who do we share your data with?

Some data, such as your name, address, move-in date and national insurance number will be shared with local authorities to assess your benefit entitlement and council tax. We also share information relating to the protection of vital interests such as safeguarding, domestic violence, criminal activity & emergency services. Please see attached full list <https://www.citizenhousing.org.uk/privacy>

How we keep your data safe?

The organisation takes the security of your data seriously. The organisation has internal policies and controls in place to safeguard that your data is not lost, accidentally destroyed, misused or disclosed, and is not accessed except by its employees in the performance of their duties. Where the organisation engages contracted third parties to process personal data on its behalf, they do so on the basis of written instructions, are under a duty of confidentiality and are obliged to implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure the security of data.

How we obtain your data

We obtain personal identifiable information by various means, this can be face to face, by email, by telephone, correspondence or by receiving information from others, for example local elected members who are representing you, police, health or social care agencies and benefit agencies. For a full list please see <https://www.citizenhousing.org.uk/privacy>

Where we share information with third parties, we do so safely and via secure networks. This may be encrypted emails, or via secure portals into our network.

Your rights

Under the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR), you have the right to be informed about how we use any data you provide: what data we collect, why, who has access to it, how long it's kept, and the legal basis we have for doing so. In certain circumstances we may need to request your consent to collect and use your data, but in those cases, you have the right to object and withdraw that consent just as easily as it is given. Should you not wish to provide your consent, any services directly related to this data cannot be provided.

You have the right to have your personal data removed where there is no legal basis for us to hold it, as well as the right to request your data is transferred to a third-party (data portability). Any automated decision making, based on your data, can be challenged and a human decision made. Additionally, you have a right of access and can request a copy of any personal data provided, and subsequently the right of rectification of any incorrect data identified. Visit the data protection page on our website to see more information about your rights. To exercise any of the above rights please contact Citizens Data Protection Officer (Mr Shane Murphy) on the address below. Overall responsibility for management of your data resides with Citizens senior information risk owner (Mr Ian Tinsley) at Citizen Housing Group Ltd, 4040, Solihull Parkway, Birmingham Business Park, Birmingham, B37 7YN or dataprotection@citizenhousing.org.uk
